

Erik plays a customized (some would say vandalized) 1963 Fender Jazz bass with EMG pickups, a Peulla Fretless, and various Lakland basses. He generates sound fx with hisbasses thru a Zoom I/bass effects unit, and uses Dean Markley Blue Steel strings. Ampeg SVT amps, Manley and Dis. This album was recorded using a Macbook Pro with Pro Tools.

Engineered and mixed by Erik Scott except Steiner, Bartalk drums, recorded by Scott Steiner.
Altho I engineered and mixed most of this music, I owe a debt of gratitude to the many engineers I have worked with in the past, from whom I have learned anything I might know... especially Ed Cherney, Dee Robb, Tom Size, and Scott Steiner. I also thank Rick Brown, Jim Tullio, and Ron Schwartz for the Pro Tools tips. And for having my back, I humbly thank Dan Pritzker, Michele Taylor, Herb Eimerman, Brayton Fogerty, and of course my gal, Mickie Scott. Also, thanks to Dan Lakin of Lakland Musical Instruments for some cool basses, and Helena Bouchez, for nudges and help in navigating the cyber-world and Tony Nuccio for package design and imaging.
